

What Our Diversity
Champions Have to Say

Rich Marquez, Informal Diversity Champion, speaking...

Q: Is it difficult to find champions?

A: “I can visibly remember Rich Mah and Don Cobb almost just eagerly raising their hands, so my recollection of the meeting and of the reception and of the enthusiasm was that at least in that instance it wasn’t difficult to find people to stand up and volunteer. I think everybody knew it was the right thing to do.”

July 2003

